Monday 6 September 2021: Virgin Australia has launched a mammoth domestic airfare sale on over one million seats starting from as low as $49.

Dubbed the Anywhere But Here sale, with booking availability for travel until June next year, sale fares can be booked to popular destinations directly at virginaustralia.com from now until midnight this Friday, or until sold out.

Also included in the sale are fares from as low as $79 between Adelaide and Launceston in celebration of the airline's brand-new direct services which take flight tomorrow.

All sale fares include Velocity Frequent Flyer Points and Status Credits and unlimited booking flexibility*

The sale follows the opening of the Virgin Australia VA-X & Win COVID-19 vaccination jackpot last week. To date more than 131,000 people have entered to win from a prize pool valued at more than $150,000 for simply rolling up their sleeves and getting the jab. Prizes include Business Class Flights, Lounge Memberships and Virgin Australia pyjamas, plus one lucky vaccinated Australian will win one million Velocity Frequent Flyer points.

One-way Economy sale fare highlights:

Comments from a Virgin Australia Groups spokesperson

"We're committed to providing travellers great value fares and award-winning service and our Anywhere But Here sale is a true testament of that," they said.

"We know travellers are dreaming about their next holiday, so we're offering these fantastic sale fares on travel dates well into next year, ready for when borders are open again.

"To give customers added confidence when booking, we are also waiving applicable change fees and allowing unlimited changes for bookings for travel between now and 28 February 2022.

"We've seen many traveller's plans impacted by domestic border restrictions and so we're here to give them comfort when booking a Virgin Australia flight that they'll be able to change the date of their travel if they need to."
